

THE EARLY SHOW's WEDDING FASHION SHOW

GROOM OPTIONS

With the help of Lord & Taylor, Colin Cowie assembled three trendy options for grooms today. Models wore each of the looks.

Look #1 was a NAVY PINSTRIPE suit, and Look #2, a SEER SUCKER suit.

Colin explained why each suit is a fabulous option for weddings today.

Look #3 was what Stephen will actually be wearing on the wedding day. Colin talked about why they chose that suit for the big day.

THE BIG TREND FOR GROOMS: Grooms should lean toward suits, not the traditional tuxedos.

LOOK/MODEL #1

This Joseph Abboud navy pinstripe suit is a classic, elegant look.

Men can pair shirts in a variety of colors with this pinstripe suit. The model wore a green shirt for the fashion show for someone who might like brighter colors, but each time you change the color, the suit looks different.

Grooms aren't the only ones who can pull off the pinstripe look: Groomsmen can as well. Colin plans to put Stephen's two brothers in pinstripe suits for the wedding on Friday.

This Haspel blue/white stripe seersucker suit is a great option for the more relaxed groom.

You could wear this suit for an outdoor wedding or for the always-popular destination wedding.

The model wore the suit with a white shirt and striped tie. To make it less formal, take the tie off and add some sandals, and you'll be ready for a beach wedding!

LOOK/MODEL #3: THE SUIT STEPHEN WILL WEAR ON FRIDAY!

This gorgeous Jack Victor Collection solid tan suit is a perfect fit for our outdoor wedding on The Early Show plaza.

When choosing the perfect suit, you need to think about looking at your wedding photos with your kids 20 years from now, and you don't want them to say, "What were you wearing?!" Nobody will question this suit.

It fits to the body; no more box suits!

You can add color with either the dress shirt or tie; in this case, Colin tied in pink to the tie, because the colors of the wedding fall in the pink, brown, and earth tone families.

BRIDESMAID OPTIONS:

The three bridesmaid options were outfitted by J.Crew Weddings and Parties Collection, and will all work for a spring/summer wedding. Colin believes bridesmaid dresses should be non-traditional. The bridesmaid should be able to wear her dress again to another function or a cocktail party, same as with the men.

Look #1 and #2 had two different style dresses in two different shades of pink. Colin explained why each one of these dresses are trendy and hip right now. Look #3 wore the dress Lisa's bridesmaids will be wearing (empire waist). Both of Lisa's bridesmaids are pregnant, so this cut works best on them!

Colin says the color of the bridesmaid dresses should match the colors of the wedding/flowers, which in this case are pinks and browns. Colin suggests looking at stores you might not typically think would have bridal attire. J.Crew is a perfect example. What makes J.Crew Weddings and Parties Collection so convenient is that it's one-stop shopping for everyone walking down the aisle, from the bride and groom, to their wedding party and any special guests. For the bridesmaids, you're able to choose many different styles in a variety of different colors.
