

"MOMMALICIOUS" MAKEOVER FOR DESERVING MOM

Andrea Long nominated her mother-in-law, Sandra Priest, of Lowell, Ark., who's become like a mother to her.

Since they first met, Andrea says Sandra has helped her emotionally, intellectually and temporally become a better wife, mother and daughter-in-law.

One of the many ways Sandra helps Andrea is take care her two-year-old son, so Andrea can focus on her new born baby girl. Every day for six hours, Sandra takes her grandson home where they play, read, garden and cook together. All this daily activity while Sandra manages her Type 1 diabetes.

Andrea nominated her mother-in-law because, she says, "There are no words to express the depth of appreciation that I have."

But Sandra wasn't paying as much attention to her appearance as she might, and that's where our makeover came in.

On The Early Show on Tuesday, May 5, 2009, we told her story, and showed her before-and-after her makeover.

Sandra and Andrea appeared.

So did style expert Mandi Norwood, author of "Michelle Style," and celebrity stylist Ted Gibson, who worked their magic on Sandra.
