

COOL LAST-MINUTE MOTHER'S DAY GIFT IDEAS

Mother's Day is just one day away, and if you haven't gotten it together to get mom a gift, it's not too late. Alison Deyette (www.AliOnTheGo.com), the stylist for TLC's "10 Years Younger," visited The Early Show Saturday Edition on May 9, 2009 with some great and affordable gift ideas you can still get your hands on -- in stores (too late to risk no-time arrival if you order them online!):

FANCY FOOTWEAR: HUNTER WELLIES, ORIGINALLY MEANT FOR WALKING THE DAMP BRITISH FIELDS, BUT THEY'RE NOT JUST FOR RAINSTORMS ANYMORE.

No, but they have become the height of fashion. Celebs and Fashionistas are making this Scottish design a must-have for every woman's closet. The new Hunter clog is perfect for Spring, and it makes a great gardening shoe. The prices range from $80-$125, and you can find them at Bloomingdale's. Hunters has a long history of quality and comfort, and now they'll make mom extra hip, with metallics or flirty and feminine prints.

SOMETHING FOR A MOM WHO LOVES HER GARDEN

Sure, a bouquet of flowers is nice, but why not help make her garden grow by giving her potted flowers like hydrangea and garden tools and accessories. This whole collection is available at Marshalls for $5-$15.

FOR MOMS WHO LOVE THOSE FANCY COFFEES, NOW THEY CAN MAKE THEIR OWN

This is perfect for moms on the go. She has to get up early and get the kids ready, get herself ready, and she has no time for grinding or measuring. It's the Keurig Single Serve Coffee Maker, and it serves up a cup of gourmet coffee in just 60 seconds. She just pops in a K-Cup and she's ready to go. The K-Cups are also available for tea and hot chocolate. This one comes with an 18 Variety Pack of gourmet coffees and teas, and it sells for $129.99 at Bed, Bath and Beyond. Add a travel mug and some treats like biscotti or croissants, and she can enjoy her gift right away.

WHAT WOMAN DOESN'T LOVE A LITTLE CASHMERE?

That's right, and you can wrap mom in the finest cashmere and linen accessory. These lightweight scarves are available at TJ Maxx, and they can be mixed and matched with just about anything. And they're just $15 each, so you can give mom a great gift, and still afford to take her out for a nice Mother's Day dessert.

A LITTLE HOME PAMPERING.

You can create an indulgent gift for mom that lasts longer than an hour massage. Dad and the kids can head to CVS, and they'll even be open late tonight, and load baskets with fabulous products for soaks in the tub, body butters, lotions and beauty products she should be pampering herself with. They carry Essence of Beauty, Vickery & Clarke, Bumble and Bumble. You can fill it with nail polishes and products for the perfect pedicure. And if she doesn't love the color, CVS offers a 100 percent money-back guarantee.

AFTER ALL THAT PAMPERING, A NICE SUMMER DRESS TO SLIP ON

It's all about the Maxi Dress this Spring and Summer, so dress mom in style with these limited edition hand painted print dresses by Michelle Bohbot for Bisou Bisou, available at JC Penney, and they only cost between $48-$60. It's got it all, universally flattering, hip, and the perfect dress for Barbecues, parties and Summer getaways.

AND THE PERFECT WAY FOR MOM TO KEEP HER MEMORIES, AND SHOW OFF THE KIDS OR GRANDKIDS

She can show off all those memories, and share them with everyone with this great digital photo frame. It's on sale now at Kohl's for just $79. She can upload 4,000 photos, and that means she can show off photos of you from birth to last week. Or for something a little more compact, this digital photo key chain from the Sharper Image is also on sale at Kohl's for just $22. It stores up to 60 images.
