REWARD
$100,000.00
FOR INFORMATION

George A. Smith IV

On July 5, 2005, in the early morning hours, George A. Smith IV, 26 years old, while on honeymoon with his newlywed wife, Jennifer Hagel-Smith, went missing in the Aegean Sea off of the Royal Caribbean Cruise Line ship, the Brilliance of the Seas.

CALL: 1-844-651-1936
TOLL FREE

EMAIL: georgesmithtipline@gmail.com
FACEBOOK: https://www.facebook.com/JusticeforGeorgeSmith

Reward up to $100,000.00 payable by the family of George A. Smith IV * for information that leads directly to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the disappearance of Mr. Smith. Anyone with information regarding Mr. Smith's disappearance is urged to call the above number

-Your identity will be protected-

*Grounds for rejecting claims:
1. The family already knew the information or it was available in accessible public records.
2. The information was determined by the efforts of federal investigators, state investigators, or any grand jury appointed for the purposes of this or any investigations.

If more than one (1) person provides information leading to said conviction(s), the $100,000 reward hereby offered shall be divided between those providing such information in a proportion which a panel of three (3) members of the Connecticut Bar Association in good standing (chosen by the parents of George A. Smith IV) deem just, based on the contribution.